

Clip: 1 of 1

Thomas Cook's Subsidiary IKYA Renamed as Quess Corp

Our Bureau

Bengaluru: Thomas Cook (India)'s subsidiary IKYA Group, an HR solutions company, has been renamed as Quess Corp Limited.

The Bengaluru-based company's main intention behind the rebranding is to "start a new era". Its new logo mark represents the hull of a ship which "expresses the spirit of continuously exploring opportunities to serve the customer better and create happy employees," said Ajit Isaac, chairman and MD. Quess Corp expertise lies in its four verticals namely Global Technology Solutions Group (GTS), Engineering Services Group (ESG), Integrated Facility Management Services (IFMG) and People and Services Group (PSG). The group has more than 90,000 employees and operates in 27 cities in India.

The company also has presence in eight countries - the US, Canada, UAE, India, Qatar, Philippines, Malaysia and Sri Lanka. Over the last seven years, the group has grown through a series of acquisitions and has a revenue of ₹2,500 crore.